The Right Path for Fathers Partnership program is designed to help long-term, unemployed, non-custodial parents. The program works with parents to:

- overcome barriers to employment,
- obtain a job and
- make consistent, dependable support payments to their children.

Our goals include ensuring child support orders are appropriate based on current income, as well as helping non-custodial parents develop a meaningful relationship with their children. If you are selected for the Right Path program, benefits include:

- Job Skills/Employment Services program
- GED classes
- Job coaching and employment leads
- Delayed child support enforcement
- Driver's license reinstatement
- Modification of support orders
- Potential to have arrears reduced
- Fatherhood program which includes peer support
